There's so much to love about this charming Circa 1948 cottage. Complete with quintessential white Pickett fences, verandah and character features, its all here!

Recent renovations incorporate a stunning master ensuite bathroom with timeless Carrara tiling and brushed gold plumbing fixtures. The upgraded kitchen is complete with white Engineered Stone tops and brand new stainless steel appliances.

Of course all of the character features you would expect including wide Jarrah floor boards, high ceilings, fireplace with gas connection plus modern conveniences including air conditioning, double garage, security alarm and so much more.

All of this on a generous 445m2 corner lot with front and rear courtyards and located right on the Mt Hawthorn border.

If schools are important, you'll be pleased to note that this amazing home is also located within the new Bob Hawke College intake area.
